What can it do for me?

- Have your say - put forward your concerns, ideas and proposals for discussion and action
- Make your voice count - collective lobbying carries more weight with councils & the like
- Promote and develop your business through meetings, events, newsletter and website
- Opportunities to network, establish business relationships, share ideas and to socialise
- Through supporting the Chamber, you are enabling us to do things that will deliver long-term benefits for your business

Working for your Interests

Alton Chamber of Commerce supports and encourages local businesses by:

- ➔ Promoting Alton as a superior traditional market town with high-quality retail and commercial services.
- ➔ Actively promoting, organising and participating in town centre events of regional appeal to encourage visitors to contribute to our local economy.
- ➔ Supporting the growth of Alton's business parks and premises to provide high-quality employment and sustained capital investment.
- ➔ Underlining Alton's importance as a local service-centre, business hub & enterprise incubator.
- ➔ Working with the local community and educational establishments to enrich and strengthen the ties with Alton's businesses and it's overall wellbeing.
